

Arts for Humanity! Development and Fundraising Internship

DESCRIPTION:

- Learn effective fundraising practices relevant to the unique Santa Barbara market.
- Experience first-hand the process of building and growing a successful base of state and private grants.
- Gain the skills necessary for a career in non-profit organization and fundraising, or for creating your own charity organization!
- Expenses covered and possibility of stipend available, school credit also available

AVAILABILITY:

ASAP. 2-10 flexible hours per week.

CONTACT:

KARSEN LEE GOULD, Executive & Creative Director

Phone: 805-687-6615

Email: create@artsforhumanity.com

Website: www.artsforhumanity.com

PLEASE NOTE:

Internships are unpaid, however academic credit is available. Positions may include monthly training/supervision with Karsen Gould, MA, CDT, founder and director of Arts for Humanity! (AH!)

Arts for Humanity! (AH!) celebrates humanity through the arts with programs that cultivate creativity and enrich the lives of people with diverse challenges and abilities. AH! provides performing and visual arts programs to people with developmental disabilities, at-risk youth, and the elderly in partnership with local artists and the Santa Barbara community. AH!'s services benefit individuals and build community by giving a voice to the underserved through the power and beauty of the arts.

Founded in 1997 by Karsen Lee Gould, MA, CDT, who has been bringing the stimulating and healing power of the arts to underserved communities for over 25 years, AH!'s contributions include seven original Mixed-Ability Theater Productions, ongoing Community Expressive Arts Programs for local nonprofits, an Internship Program, and collaborative Community Events.