

Join the world of banking

Every day, corporations worldwide come to Barclays for our banking expertise. We help drive global commerce by providing comprehensive financial, advisory and capital-raising services. Our bankers advise on everything from mergers and acquisitions and privatizations to debt and equity financings and restructuring. Want in? Join us as an analyst.

The chance to make an impact

After seven weeks of intensive training to start, you'll join one of our industry, product or geographic groups and start working on live deals and business development projects right away. Within small deal teams, you'll quickly play an important role on a variety of demanding assignments. You may work on:

- financial analysis and modeling
- valuation
- industry research
- business evaluation and strategic assessment
- business and idea generation
- external and internal stakeholder communication.

A place where you can thrive

At Barclays, you'll be surrounded by people who will help you achieve your ambitions. Our collaborative, supportive environment gives you the chance to build solid relationships with senior leaders, peers and clients alike. What's more, dedicated program managers will support and advocate for you throughout the first several years of your career at Barclays, ensuring you develop the skills you need to succeed.

During your analyst years, you'll also:

- participate in formal and informal training designed to give you the knowledge you need when you need it
- receive detailed performance coaching and feedback
- have opportunities to expand your network and develop leadership skills.

Your role as a Banking analyst will provide you with the skills and experience needed for a successful career in the world of finance. We'll also provide you a visible path to the necessary steps for promotion to associate and the tools to get you there.

Opportunities where you want to be

The Banking analyst position is typically available in Atlanta, Calgary, Chicago, Houston, Los Angeles, Menlo Park, New York and Toronto.

To be considered for this program, you must:

- successfully complete an undergraduate degree between December 2019 - June 2020.

Ideally, you would also have:

- a strong interest in business and finance, though no specific major is required
- have a minimum GPA of 3.2
- unrestricted U.S. work authorization

- course experience in accounting (strongly recommended)
- resourcefulness, team-orientation, enthusiasm and an entrepreneurial spirit, demonstrated through participation in extracurricular activities.

Ready to apply?

Please submit an application through Barclays' online system. Then, submit your resume and cover letter through your school's career management application system if required. Please note that you can apply to only one Barclays' graduate program globally.

About Barclays

Barclays is a transatlantic consumer and wholesale bank offering products and services across personal, corporate and investment banking, credit cards and wealth management, with a strong presence in our two home markets of the UK and the US.

With over 325 years of history and expertise in banking, Barclays operates in over 40 countries and employs approximately 83,500 people. Barclays moves, lends, invests and protects money for customers and clients worldwide.

To learn more about careers at Barclays, visit joinus.barclays

For further information about Barclays, please visit our website home.barclays

It is the policy of Barclays to ensure equal employment opportunity without discrimination or harassment on the basis of race, color, creed, religion, national origin, alienage or citizenship status, age, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, marital or domestic/civil partnership status, disability, protected veteran status, genetic information, or any other basis protected by law.

California statement

*It is the policy of Barclays that an applicant's criminal conviction will not be a bar to employment

San Francisco statement

Pursuant to the San Francisco Fair Chance Ordinance, it is the policy of Barclays to consider for employment qualified applicants with arrest and conviction records