STRATEGIC INVESTMENT PROGRAM

Department of Economics
UC Santa Barbara

Think Wall Street offers the only opportunities in finance and investing? Think again. Successful finance and investment careers await through private industry, nonprofit and government organizations as well as the real estate sector. Now is the time to prepare for your chosen career path.

The Strategic Investment Program (SIP) is designed to provide participants with a solid foundation in key practical aspects of investing and financial economics. This program is designed to give students the opportunity to gain skills and knowledge that can be directly applied in the investment arena. The certificate will also demonstrate to current and prospective employers evidence of recent professional training in this field. In some cases, course work may also be applied toward continuing education requirements in fields such as accounting, law, and finance, or other forms of career advancement.

SIP is a collaboration between the Department of Economics and UCSB Extension.

Program Requirements

2019-20 Strategic Investment Prerequisites

ADMISSIONS

The minimum standard for admission to this certificate program is UCSB enrollment and a C or higher in Economics 1, 2 and 3A (or equivalents).

COURSE CREDITS

All SIP courses offered through UCSB Extension will be part of the X400 series. This is a professional development program – UCSB students cannot apply X400 series units towards their degree.

INSTRUCTORS

The instructors who teach in this program are practicing professionals from the community, as well as UCSB ladder faculty and lecturers from the Department of Economics. They are chosen for their personal commitment, academic background, teaching ability, and professional expertise. Lecturer appointments will require the consultation and approval of the Chair of the SIP Executive Director and the Chair of the Department of Economics.

REQUIRED CURRICULUM

The courses will consist of lectures, guest speakers, case studies, data projects, and final projects/presentations. The exact course requirements are as follow: Econ 1, 2 and 3A (or equivalents), X499.1-499.4, and a minimum of 3 elective units listed as XX499.10 and above, for 22 units.

TO APPLY

For more information, FAQs, or to enroll in the program, visit the UCSB Extension website, click on "Certificates" and find the link to "Strategic Investments Program."
