

UC SANTA BARBARA

Career Connection Finance Fridays

Want to learn more about careers in finance?

Opportunities for working within the finance field are vast, with a multitude of specialties to choose from. Join us in conversation with Robert Keller, Vice Chairman of J.P. Morgan and proud Gaucho parent, as he shares his professional experiences and insights on how to become successful in finance after graduating from UCSB.

Friday, October 30, 2020

1:00 – 2:00 PM

Register

<https://tinyurl.com/CareerConnectionRobertKeller>

Robert A. Keller
Vice Chairman
J.P. Morgan

Robert Keller is a Vice Chairman of J.P. Morgan and has been with the firm's Private Bank since 2002. He maintains offices in San Francisco and Palo Alto and is a member of the Leadership Committee for the Western Region. Robert is responsible primarily for managing client relationships in northern California and for developing the region's strategic focus for new business development. Prior to joining J.P. Morgan, Robert had been a General Partner at Rosewood Capital in San Francisco from 2000-2002. He also was an investment banker with Hambrecht & Quist, where he served as head of the firm's Internet investment banking group from 1995-2000. From 1992-1995, Robert worked in corporate finance in the Media & Entertainment group at Citicorp Securities in New York, focusing primarily on high yield origination and leveraged lending for broadcast and cable companies. Robert received his M.B.A. from Harvard University and his B.A. in economics from Tufts University.